

Project Name: Herkimer Community College

Project Location: Herkimer, NY

Project Overview

The Herkimer Community College Johnson Hall Science Center lab renovations project included casework, tables, specialty fume hoods, window sills, and corridor benches. Johnson Hall is home to Biology, Microbiology, Anatomy, Chemistry, and Physics disciplines. NEIS along with the project participants thoughtfully reorganized the space to meet current and future research and curriculum requirements.

- Wood-Metal Industries Maple Wood Casework
- Metal Framed Tables
- Stainless Steel Tops

Project Statistics

- Project Size: 20,000 square feet
- NEIS Contract: $350,000

Project Participants

- Architect: CS Arch
- General Contractor: Priore Construction

